Resignation of Chief Financial Officer

On September 21, 2026, QuickLogic Corporation (the "Company") announced that Elias Nader, Chief Financial Officer of the Company, resigned from the Company effective as of the close of business on September 18, 2026 to pursue other opportunities.

Mr. Nader is committed to an orderly transition of his duties. Mr. Nader's departure is not related to any disagreement with the Company or its board of directors on any matter relating to the Company's accounting, operating policies or practices.

Appointment of New Chief Financial Officer

Effective October 5, 2026, the Company has appointed Mr. James Sullivan, 58, to serve as its new Senior Vice President of Finance and Chief Financial Officer. In this role, Mr. Sullivan will lead the global finance organization and assume the duties of the Company's principal financial officer and principal accounting officer. There is no family relationship between Mr. Sullivan and any executive officer or director of the Company and there are no understandings or arrangements between Mr. Sullivan and any other person pursuant to which Mr. Sullivan was appointed as Chief Financial Officer. Mr. Sullivan has no transactions reportable under Item 5.02 of Form 8-K and Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

Mr. Sullivan previously served as Chief Financial Officer for Peraso Inc., a publicly traded semiconductor company, from December 2021 through September 2026. From January 2008 until December 2021, he served as Chief Financial Officer of MoSys, Inc., a publicly-traded semiconductor company. Prior to that, Mr. Sullivan held Chief Financial Officer positions at Apptera, In. and 8x8, Inc., a publicly-traded SAAS provider of VoIP and unified communication solutions. Mr. Sullivan's prior experience includes various positions at 8x8, Inc. and PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP. He received a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from New York University's Stern School of Business and is a certified public accountant.

Pursuant to the offer letter, Mr. Sullivan will be entitled to an annual base salary of $340,000 per year and he will be eligible for an annual incentive bonus of 50% of his annual base salary. He will also receive a signing bonus of $10,000 in cash. The offer letter has an indefinite term and Mr. Sullivan's employment is at-will. Mr. Sullivan will, subject to approval by the Company's Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, be granted $600,000 in restricted stock units as an employment inducement award ("New Hire RSUs"). The New Hire RSUs will be granted outside of the Company's 2019 Equity Incentive Plan, in accordance with Rule 5635(c)(4) of the Nasdaq Listing Rules. The New Hire RSUs will vest over a three-year period, with one-third vesting on the one-year anniversary of the grant date and 1/6th vesting each six months thereafter, subject to Mr. Sullivan's continued employment with the Company. The Company and Mr. Sullivan will also enter into the Company's standard form of change-of-control agreement, the form of which was previously filed as an exhibit to the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the Securities & Exchange Commission. Mr. Sullivan will also execute the Company's standard form of indemnification agreement.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

The Company issued a press release on September 21, 2026 announcing the resignation of Chief Financial Officer Elias Nader and appointment of James Sullivan as his replacement. A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and is incorporated by reference herein.

The information in the press release is being furnished, not filed, pursuant to Item 7.01 of Form 8-K. Accordingly, the information in Item 7.01 of this Current Report, including Exhibit 99.1, will not be incorporated by reference into any registration statement filed by the Company under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, unless specifically identified therein as being incorporated by reference.

QuickLogic Announces Chief Financial Officer Transition

James Sullivan Appointed Chief Financial Officer; Company Reaffirms Third Quarter Guidance

San Jose, Calif., September 21, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- QuickLogic Corporation (NASDAQ: QUIK), a developer of embedded FPGA (eFPGA) Hard IP, Strategic Radiation Hardened and Antifuse FPGAs and ruggedized programmable logic solutions, today announced the appointment of James Sullivan as its new Senior Vice President of Finance and Chief Financial Officer, effective October 5, 2026. Sullivan replaces Elias Nader, who has resigned effective as of the close of business September 18, 2026, to pursue other opportunities.

"We thank Elias for his contributions over the past four years," said Brian Faith, CEO of QuickLogic. "The entire QuickLogic team remains focused on executing against our strategic priorities and advancing the growth opportunities before us in eFPGA IP, antifuse FPGA technology, and our Storefront business. Our previously announced third quarter 2026 guidance remains unchanged. We wish Elias the very best in his next chapter and appreciate his continued support during the transition."

"I am also pleased to welcome James Sullivan to QuickLogic," added Mr. Faith. "Jim is a seasoned semiconductor public company CFO with deep technical financial expertise and extensive experience helping innovative semiconductor companies achieve their growth objectives. His strong background across advanced wireless, aerospace, defense, and autonomous systems markets aligns well with QuickLogic's expanding opportunities in eFPGA IP, antifuse FPGA technology, and Storefront solutions. As we continue executing our strategy, Jim's track record building scalable financial and operational infrastructure will help position QuickLogic for long-term growth and value creation."

Mr. Sullivan most recently served as Chief Financial Officer for Peraso Inc., a publicly traded semiconductor company pioneering high-performance mmWave wireless technology, offering chipsets, modules, software and IP. Before joining Peraso, he spent 14 years as Chief Financial Officer of MoSys, Inc., a publicly traded fabless semiconductor company. He also held CFO roles at Apptera, Inc. and at 8x8, Inc., a publicly traded SAAS provider of VoIP and unified communication solutions. Sullivan began his career at PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP. He holds a B.S. in Accounting from New York University's Stern School of Business and is a certified public accountant.

Mr. Sullivan added, "I am excited to be joining QuickLogic at such a transformative time and look forward to partnering with the management team to continue our focus on financial discipline and thoughtful investment that will fuel our next chapter of growth, as we strive to build long-term shareholder value."
